The program will also include lunch, a campus tour and residential college tours.

We encourage you to register early as places are limited and registration will be closed as soon as we reach capacity.

Once we have confirmed your registration, we will send you a list of suggestions for a range of activities you could consider while you're in Melbourne, including sporting and cultural events and dining options.

Please note: The April Interstate Student Information Day is not an Open Day, but a structured program designed for Year 11 and 12 domestic interstate students and a guest. Places are limited and registration is required. Due to limited places, only one additional guest will be allowed with each prospective student's registration.

Registrations will open here soon – <https://study.unimelb.edu.au/connect-with-us/events-for-future-students/all-events-listing/interstate-student-information-day>

UAC admissions opening early

If you're a Year 12 student in NSW, or an interstate student planning on applying in 2020 to a Uni in NSW through UAC, there's some good news.

You can now start the undergraduate admissions process from 9am on 3 April 2019 (in previous years you had to wait until August). So if you know what you want to study and where, you could get your Uni applications done early in the Year, leaving more time to focus on study near to your exams.

Understanding University Early Entry

Early entry is a system that some universities or tertiary admissions centres (TAC) use to help them select students before the normal application process takes place. You apply through a special system and get an offer earlier than if you waited and used your ATAR to apply normally.

MACQUARIE LEADERS AND ACHIEVERS – Early Entry program

Macquarie Leaders and Achievers is our new early entry program that recognises a student's academic performance alongside their extracurricular activities that demonstrate leadership, community service and personal achievement.

Year 12 students who meet the criteria are offered a place in their preferred degree before the HSC examinations.

HOW TO APPLY

Students complete an online application and have a school representative endorse their application.

Key dates:

Applications open: June 3

Applications Close: August 26

Offer Round 1: August 15

Offer Round 2: September 12

Offer Round 3: October 3

Find details for every medical program in Australia and the deadlines you need to know here – <https://www.studymedicine.com.au/deadlines/>

University Clinical Aptitude Test (UCAT ANZ)

The University Clinical Aptitude Test \(UCAT\) is an admissions test used by the UCAT ANZ Consortium of universities in Australia and New Zealand for their medical, dental and clinical science degree programmes.

The UCAT ANZ test will replace the UMAT (Undergraduate Medicine and Health Sciences Admission Test) from 2019 (for university entry in 2020).

The UCAT ANZ is a computer-based test delivered in Pearson VUE test centres throughout Australia, New Zealand and at some overseas locations.

Please note that some pathways to medicine / dentistry / clinical sciences will not require the UCAT. For some applicants a different test may be required. For details candidates should refer to the websites of the universities to which they intend to apply.

Find the dates for 2019 here – <https://www.ucat.edu.au/ucat-anz/dates-and-fees/>

Engineering & Technology Cadetships Program – Now Open

Applications are open for the Engineering & Technology Cadetships (ETCAD) Program.

If you are a Year 12 student who is interested in studying engineering or technology at university, why not consider applying for an ETCAD Cadetship?

Cadets combine study at the university of their choice with paid work at Cubic Transportation Systems. Cubic is a global leader in devising and running integrated transport management systems. In Sydney, the firm is responsible for the Opal card.

With an ETCAD Cadetship you will be launching your career from the start of university rather than competing with graduates at the end of their degree.

Applications close on 21 June.

Workshops & Courses

Experience UNSW Built Environment Workshops

10 July

18 July

Do you want to shape future cities to improve people's lives? We'd like to invite you to the Experience UNSW Built Environment Workshops at our Kensington Campus during the April School Holidays. Our free interactive and hands-on Experience UNSW Built Environment Workshops, for students in years 10 -12, incorporate Design, Architecture, Planning and Construction to solve a real-world challenge. The workshop aims to investigate better solutions to enhance the lives of children and elderly living in a city. With the world's population rapidly increasing, there is an urgent need to design cities which are smart, healthy and liveable for both the younger and older population – a challenge that designers, architects and planners are facing today. In our new gallery space and the Design Futures Lab, you will create innovative and practical solutions to this real-world challenge. You will meet current UNSW students who will introduce you to the UNSW Built Environment degrees and show you how you can contribute to shaping the future of our cities. Time: 9am – 4pm. Morning tea and lunch will be provided These workshops are open to students in years 10 – 12 only. Find out more - <https://www.events.unsw.edu.au/event/experience-unsw-built-environment-workshops>

What are Soft Skills and why do you need to know about them?

Why your soft skills matter

When you apply for a job you know you'll need to have the right qualifications and technical skills, they're the hard skills, the absolutes for each specific job.

Soft skills are your personal attributes, the things that will enable you to function well in your role, work well in a team, interact with other people and basically make you shine in your job.

Why do employers like them

Imagine you're an employer - you've got 2 employees with the exact same qualifications and technical skills. One of them is positive, adaptable, a great team player and always receives good feedback from customers and colleagues. There is nothing wrong with the second persons skills and ability to get the job done, but they never go the extra mile.

You have to let one employee go.... who would you choose to keep?

Soft skills go beyond what you've learnt at school or Uni, they're the things that aren't generally taught but are really important in creating a well-rounded employee.

Things like:

- common sense
- initiative
- the ability to deal with people
- a positive attitude
- being adaptable

Let's face it, many 'hard skills' are rapidly being replaced by robots, which makes your 'soft skills' more valuable than ever.

Who needs Soft Skills?

Everyone. That's the short answer.

Lots of recent reports indicate that the majority of employers view soft skills as more important than academic qualifications.

Whether you're academically gifted, or more of a hands-on type of person, working on your soft skills is something that you should put to the top of your priority list - and never stop working on.

Top 7 Soft Skills for 2019

1. Communication skills
2. Critical Thinking
3. Leadership
4. Positive Attitude
5. Collaboration
6. Work Ethic
7. Emotional Intelligence

Job Spotlight

Carpenter

What do they do?

Carpenters are highly skilled, important within the construction and renovation industries, in both commercial and residential settings. They work with wood in all its forms. From putting up timber frames for buildings, to boat making, creating cabinetry or fine furniture, the scope is very broad.

If you're practical with a creative streak, love to be hands on, have great attention to detail and love a bit variety, this could be a really rewarding career to consider.

Duties:

These vary greatly depending on the job and type of carpentry, here's a rough guide.

- Read and interpret plans and designs
- List, measure and price materials required
- build, install, repair and erect wooden frames, foundations, walls and other structural elements.
- cut, measure and shape timber elements, using precise measurements and adjustments
- construct formwork into which concrete is poured
- use both hand and power tools, maintain and sharpen tools.

Skills required:

- Creativity and visualisation of finished products
- Dexterity and a steady hand
- Physical strength and stamina
- Maths
- Attention to detail
- Patience

Pathways

Apprenticeships with registered training organisations, minimum Certificate III in Carpentry.

Entry requirements vary, but employers generally require Year 10.

Check in your state as what accreditation or supervision is required.

Workers in the construction industry must undergo safety induction training and be issued with a Construction Induction Card (CIC).

Average salary ranges from $40,000 to $90,000 per year depending on type of carpentry and level of qualification (Source: Payscale)

Job growth in this area is moderate (source: Joboutlook.gov.au)
